Women's 'Biz.Gym':

Why might you be interested in this program?

You know how many small business women feel unable to cope with the cumulative demands of finance, sales, marketing, resources and personnel?

Which means that they are working long hours, have little time to relax, are stressed about money and disillusioned by a lack of enthusiasm for their business?

Well, what I do is to offer a nationwide, coaching program for business owners...

...which means that we train, consult and coach in 8 key strategies which have been proven to create More Profit in Less Time...

...the benefit of which is more energy from working fewer hours, peace of mind about money, more balanced home lives and new passion for work.

Would you like to know more?

A program for women entrepreneurs, solopreneurs and small businesses. A 'Business Coaching Gym' works like this. The group will meet face to face quarterly for a $\frac{1}{2}$ day seminar in the SF Bay Area. As well as a presentation we will have time to interact and share questions, road blocks and celebrate each others successions.

Monthly we will have a teleconference with ongoing interactive presentations on building your business and will be addressing some of the situations we are hearing about most often. You will once again have the opportunity to put your questions to me and to each other. I will also have guests join us, such as a branding genius, legal expert, computer guru etc. from time to time.

Finally you will have access to me Tues. through Thurs. by phone so each member will have time to get individual help with their particular issues As well as unlimited email access.

$350 $317. a month or
$3780 $3027 for the entire year
